

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Mae Schunk has been the hardest working and most loyal public servant that anyone can imagine; and
- WHEREAS: Mae tirelessly and selflessly worked on behalf of public education and children throughout the state; and
- WHEREAS: Mae, as my Ambassador to Education, kept her campaign promise by visiting every school district in Minnesota; and
- WHEREAS: Mae rose to the challenge of being my running mate, and upheld the dignity of her office as my second in command; and
- WHEREAS: Mae could be counted on to courageously tell me what she learned, what she thought I should do, and what she thought I shouldn't do.
- WHEREAS: Mae earned the respect of the Governor of Minnesota, his entire staff, and educators and schoolchildren in every town in Minnesota.

NOW THEREFORE, I, JESSE VENTURA, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim that Friday, January 3, 2003 shall be observed as:

Lt. Governor Mae Schunk Day

In the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 30th day of December in the year two thousand and two and of the State the one hundred forty-fourth.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
