Proclamation

OCT 4 1994

Joan Anderson Howe
Secretary of State

- WHEREAS: Joan McDonald, age 66, returned to work 11 years ago and, with diligence and dedication, has progressed from her job as a clerk to a patient representative at a local medical clinic; and
- WHEREAS: Monica Kline, age 74, volunteers her time in the service of orphaned or abused children, serves on an ethics committee at a local nursing home, organizes a leisure group for seniors in her neighborhood, and is treasurer of her church's Women's Guild; and
- WHEREAS: Gilbert LaLonde, age 65, resumed competitive diving five years ago after a lengthy hiatus and has since won 11 national titles and set national and world records in master-class diving; and
- WHEREAS: Marion Hammond continues to paint joyful pictures of life in Minnesota despite a severe physical disability, inspiring others to use their talents as well, and has demonstrated outstanding service to the community through her volunteer efforts to organize the delivery of hot meals to the homebound; and
- WHEREAS: Medica will host a Senior Bus Shelter at the 1994 Minnesota State Fair on August 29 and will honor these seniors' active lifestyles at an Age is Opportunity awards ceremony;

NOW THEREFORE, I, ARNE H. CARLSON, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim August 29, 1994 to be in Minnesota.

AGE IS OPPORTUNITY DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ninety-four and of the State the one hundred and thirty-sixth.
