

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: The insurance industry provides high quality jobs to thousands of Minnesotans and offers important services to our citizens; and
- WHEREAS: As a taxpayer, the insurance industry contributes significantly to our state through an excess of revenue over expenses; and
- WHEREAS: In our nation and throughout the world, the insurance industry is an exporter of insurance services and a major factor in the financing of residential and commercial buildings; and
- WHEREAS: The insurance industry in Minnesota has produced a high degree of professionalism among agents and company personnel through continued education, on-the-job training and with the assistance of professional organizations such as the Minnesota Chapter of the CPCU Society.

NOW THEREFORE, I, JESSE VENTURA, Governor of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim, Friday, November 17, 2000 shall be observed as:

Insurance Day

in the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 5th day of October in the year two thousand, and of the State the one hundred forty second.

Jesse Ventura
GOVERNOR
