

STATE of MINNESOTA

Proclamation

STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED

JAN 27 1992

Joan Anderson Grove
Secretary of State

- WHEREAS: The entire United States of America owes many sleepless nights, ten headaches and chewed fingernails to the 1991 Minnesota Twins and the Atlanta Braves; and
- WHEREAS: We have all witnessed the most thrilling seven game World Series in the modern baseball era with three extra-inning games, four games determined by the last pitch, five games decided by one run and five games decided by the winning teams last time at bat; and
- WHEREAS: The 1991 Minnesota Twins, by going from "worst to first", have once again proven that anything is possible; and
- WHEREAS: Contributions by the entire team, great defense, clutch batting and unbelievable pitching made this World Championship possible; and
- WHEREAS: The entire State of Minnesota can proudly boast that, thanks to the tremendous endurance and skill of our MINNESOTA TWINS, "We are the Champions";

NOW THEREFORE, I, ARNE H. CARLSON, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, October 29, 1991 to be in Minnesota.

WORLD CHAMPION MINNESOTA TWINS DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-ninth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and ninety-one, and of the State the one hundred thirty-third.
