In addition to remembering their courageous service, we must not forget the unsung heroes in the war on terror: the spouses and family members whose many sacrifices support the defense of this great nation; and
- WHEREAS: The spouses and families of our deployed service members bear an enormous burden of concern and support for loved ones in harm's way, while continuing to perform the daily duties needed to sustain their families on the home front; and
- WHEREAS: Many cities throughout the country display yellow ribbons and flags in support of the brave men and women serving abroad in the United States Armed Forces; and
- WHEREAS: GLOBE UNIVERSITY/MINNESOTA SCHOOL OF BUSINESS is a Minnesota campus that encourages its military members and spouses, giving them peace of mind in knowing they have the appreciation, love, and support of this community; and
- WHEREAS: The Yellow Ribbon Campus campaign honors college and university communities with exceptional records of caring for their military members and families through various programs and public works, and recognizes individuals in these communities who have sworn to uphold this standard for future military members and families.
